

IGU Regional Conference
18-22 August 2014, Kraków
Commission on Transport and Geography

CALL FOR PAPERS

The IGU Transport and Geography Commission are organising two thematic sessions of research papers and a one day Field Trip for the 2014 IGU Kraków Conference.

1. Zbigniew Taylor (Institute of Geography and Spatial Organization PAN, Warsaw, Poland) and Richard Knowles (University of Salford, UK) are co-convening a session on the theme of Transformation of Transport Systems in Central and Eastern Europe, including trans-border issues, transport deregulation and privatisation, and tourism and transport.
2. Richard Knowles (University of Salford, UK) and Yves Boquet (University of Bourgogne, France) are co-convening a session on the theme of Geographical Impacts of Transport Investment and Transport Policy Change.

If you are interested in offering a paper for either of these sessions, please submit an Abstract to the conference organisers as soon as possible (see details below), specifying which theme.

Authors are requested to submit their abstracts (max: 250 words) electronically through the conference website (<http://www.igu2014.org/>) before January 15, 2014. Before submitting abstracts, you need to register and get ID (your email address) and password without paying your registration fee.

After submitting your Abstract to the IGU Conference website, please also send a copy to Zbigniew Taylor (z.taylor@twarda.pan.pl) and Richard Knowles (r.d.knowles@salford.ac.uk).

After the conference, the Journal of Transport Geography will be interested in considering suitable papers for publication.
